This apartment has clear title and is offered unfurnished.

Associated Costs

The advertised selling price of this apartment in Taiba includes the cost for allocation of your individual Brazilian CPF number, which is required for you to buy a property in Brazil, although, does not include registration taxes/fees paid in Brazil to put the property into your name.

Although it is not mandatory to use a Lawyer when buying properties in Ceara, due to the fact that a CRECI registered estate agent is qualified to carry out the complete sale and purchase transaction for the property, Brazil Overseas Property recommends that you do use an independent lawyer in Brazil registered and qualified with the OAB (Ordem dos Advogados do Brasil), and a Lawyer who is also familiar with the region where you intend to buy your property in Brazil, as well as being fully qualified to deal with the type of property you are buying.

If you are an overseas investor intending to buy an apartment in Brazil, you should always receive an officially translated version of the sale and purchase contract into your native language for the property you are buying in Brazil.

Legal fees and officially translated documents are not included within the advertised sales price of this Brazilian apartment.
